HLA Fit CI

Off To A Great Start

In your youth, the future seems really bright and exciting, without a worry of a possible turn of tide. But if the tide does change, it's worth planning for the unexpected.

At this stage of your life, you are probably the healthiest, which translates to very affordable premiums. And since you would've just started working, you can start off with an insurance plan that provides coverage for Critical Illnesses.

The HLA F&T CI is an ideal plan for those who want an insurance plan without a high commitment. The plan provides protection against 10 major Critical Illnesses by paying you 100% of the basic sum assured upon diagnosis.

Signing-up for the HLA F&T CI is a breeze as there are no complicated medical check-ups required. Just answer a simple health questionnaire and you are good to go. Even better, the plan can be automatically renewed for another 10 years without underwriting, for up to two times.

HLA FiT

Stay active and get instantly rewarded with the HLA FiT app when you sign up for HLA FiT CI plan!

All you have to do is to download and activate the HLA FiT app, which is connected to your fitness tracker. The HLA FiT app then starts keeping track of your daily activities as you walk and run, as well as your heart rate and sleeping patterns. This biological information stored in the HLA FiT app's engine will then calculate and chart your biological age.

The more active you are, the lower your biological age, the more points you can accumulate to bag exciting rewards, on a weekly basis! It's as simple as that!
